

115TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

H. R. 4544

To amend the Fair Credit Reporting Act to provide protections for consumers after a data breach at a consumer reporting agency, and for other purposes.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

DECEMBER 4, 2017

Mr. Sires introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on Financial Services

A BILL

To amend the Fair Credit Reporting Act to provide protections for consumers after a data breach at a consumer reporting agency, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Consumer Data Protection Act”.

6 SEC. 2. DATA SECURITY.

7 (a) IN GENERAL.—The Fair Credit Reporting Act
8 (15 U.S.C. 1681 et seq.) is amended by inserting after 9 section 605B (15 U.S.C. 1681e-2) the following:

1 “SEC. 605C. DATA SECURITY AT CONSUMER REPORTING2 AGENCIES.

3 “(a) DEFINITIONS.—In this section—

4 “(1) the term ‘affected individual’ means an in-5 dividual, the sensitive personal information of whom 6 is lost, stolen, or accessed without authorization be-7 cause of a data breach;8 “(2) the term ‘appropriate committees of Con-9 gress’ means—10 “(A) the Committee on the Judiciary of 11 the Senate;12 “(B) the Committee on Banking, Housing, 13 and Urban Affairs of the Senate;14 “(C) the Committee on the Judiciary of 15 the House of Representatives; and16 “(D) the Committee on Financial Services 17 of the House of Representatives;18 “(3) the term ‘covered action’ means an action 19 that restricts the legal rights available to a con-20 sumer, including—

21 “(A) requiring the consumer to—

22 “(i) waive the right of the consumer
23 to—24 “(I) file a civil action in an ap-25 ropriate court; or

1 “(II) bring, or participate in, a 2 class action; or

3 “(ii) engage in settlement negotiations
4 before bringing an action under subsection 5 (c)(3); and

6 “(B) offering a financial inducement in ex-7 change for the consumer waiving any right of 8 the consumer;

9 “(4) the term ‘credit freeze’—

10 “(A) except as provided in subparagraph
11 (B), means a restriction placed on the consumer 12 report of a consumer at the request of the con-13 sumer, or a personal representative of the con-
14 sumer, that prohibits a consumer reporting 15 agency from releasing the consumer report for 16 any purpose; and

17 “(B) with respect to the consumer report 18 of a consumer, shall not apply to the use of the 19 consumer report by—

20 “(i) a person, or a subsidiary, affil-21 iate, agent, subcontractor, or assignee of 22 the person, with which the consumer has,
23 or before assignment had, an account, con-24 tract, or debtor-creditor relationship for 25 the purposes of—

1 “(I) reviewing the active account;

2 or

3 “(II) collecting the financial obli-
4 gation owed on the account, contract,
5 or debt;

6 “(ii) any person acting under a court
7 order, warrant, or subpoena;

12 of providing a credit monitoring or identity
13 theft protection service to which the con-
14 sumer has subscribed;

15 “(v) any person for the purpose of 16 providing a consumer with a copy of the 17 consumer report, credit score, or edu-
18 cational credit score of the consumer upon 19 request by the consumer;

20 “(vi) any person or entity for insur-
21 ance purposes, including use in setting or 22 adjusting a rate, adjusting a claim, or un-23 derwriting; and

24 “(vii) any person acting under an au-25 thorization from a consumer to use the

1 consumer report of the consumer for em-
2 ployment purposes;

3 “(5) the term ‘data breach’ means the loss, 4 theft, or other unauthorized access, other than ac-
5 cess that is incidental to the scope of employment, 6 of data containing sensitive personal information, in 7 electronic or printed form, that results in the poten-8 tial compromise of the confidentiality or integrity of 9 the data; and

10 “(6) the term ‘sensitive personal information’ 11 means, with respect to an individual, information—

12 “(A) about the individual relating to the 13 education, financial transactions, medical his-14 tory, criminal history, or employment history of 15 the individual; and 16 “(B) that can be used to distinguish or 17 trace the identity of the individual, including 18 the name, social security number, date and 19 place of birth, mother’s maiden name, and bio-20 metric records of the individual.

21 “(b) DATA BREACHES AT CONSUMER REPORTING
22 AGENCIES.—With respect to a data breach at a consumer 23 reporting agency, the consumer reporting agency—

24 “(1) subject to paragraph (2), shall notify—

1 “(A) not later than 2 days after the date
2 on which the consumer reporting agency dis-
3 covers the data breach—

4 “(i) the Federal Trade Commission; 5 “(ii) the Bureau; and 6 “(iii) appropriate law enforcement and 7 intelligence agencies, as identified by the 8 Secretary of Homeland Security; and 9 “(B) not later than 3 days after the date

10 on which the consumer reporting agency dis-
11 covers the data breach, and as quickly and effi-12 ciently as is practicable, each affected individual 13 with respect to the data breach;

14 “(2) may receive an extension of the 2-day
15 deadline described in paragraph (1)(A) or the 3-day
16 deadline described in paragraph (1)(B) if the Fed-
17 eral Trade Commission and the intelligence agencies 18 identified under paragraph (1)(A)(iii) determine that 19 there is a national security concern that requires 20 granting such an extension;

21 “(3) shall, upon request by any affected indi-22 vidual with respect to the data breach, provide, with-23 out charge to the affected individual and during the 24 lifetime of the affected individual—

1 “(A) a credit freeze, including the cost re-2 lating to imposing, lifting, or permanently re-
3 moving a credit freeze, with respect to the con-4 sumer report of the affected individual at any 5 consumer reporting agency described in section 6 603(p); and

7 “(B) credit monitoring services for the af-
8 fected individual at any consumer reporting 9 agency described in section 603(p); and 10 “(4) shall, in consultation with the Bureau, es-11 tablish a consumer assistance unit—

12 “(A) that shall—

13 “(i) be carried out, and paid for, by 14 the consumer reporting agency; and 15 “(ii) provide assistance, free of charge 16 and for a period of 10 years beginning on 17 the date on which the consumer reporting

18 agency submits the notifications required
19 under paragraph (1)(A), to any affected 20 individual who wants to dispute an item in 21 the file of the affected individual that was 22 entered into that file after the date on 23 which the data breach occurred; and 24 “(B) with respect to which the consumer 25 reporting agency shall, as soon as practicable

1 after the date on which the consumer assistance
2 unit is established, notify each affected indi-
3 vidual with respect to the data breach by mail 4 and e-mail.

5 “(c) ENFORCEMENT.—

6 “(1) IN GENERAL.—Subject to subtitle B of the 7 Consumer Financial Protection Act of 2010 (12 8 U.S.C. 5511 et seq.), the Federal Trade Commission
9 or the Bureau may bring a civil action to recover a 10 civil penalty in an appropriate district court of the 11 United States against any person that negligently, 12 knowingly, or willingly causes a data breach at a 13 consumer reporting agency.

14 “(2) PENALTY AMOUNT.—

15 “(A) IN GENERAL.—In a successful action
16 brought under paragraph (1), the person
17 against which the action is brought shall be lia-18 ble for a civil penalty of not more than—

19 “(i) $2,500 for each affected indi-
20 vidual with respect to the data breach 21 caused by the person; and 22 “(ii) $25,000,000 in total.

23 “(B) CONSIDERATIONS.—In determining 24 the amount of a civil penalty in a successful ac-
25 tion brought under paragraph (1), the court

1 shall consider, with respect to the person 2 against which the action is brought—

3 “(i) the degree of culpability of the 4 person;

5 “(ii) any history of similar prior con-
6 duct by the person;

7 “(iii) the ability of the person to pay;

8 “(iv) the effect of the penalty on the 9 ability of the person to continue to do busi-10 ness; and

11 “(v) any other factor as justice may 12 require.

13 “(3) PRIVATE CAUSE OF ACTION.—

14 “(A) DEFINITION.—In this paragraph, the 15 term ‘actual loss’ means the total cost to an af-16 fected individual as a result of a data breach at 17 a consumer reporting agency, including—

18 “(i) the costs incurred by the affected 19 individual—

20 “(I) in responding to the data 21 breach; and

22 “(II) as a result of—23 “(aa) reviewing accounts of 24 the affected individual for fraud-

25 ulent charges;

8 “(ii) any revenue lost, or cost or con-
9 sequential damage incurred, by the af-
10 fected individual relating to the interrup-
11 tion of the ability of the affected individual 12 to obtain credit.

1 under clause (i), the affected individual
2 may recover—

3 “(I) the greater of—4 “(aa) the actual loss to the 5 affected individual with respect 6 to the data breach described in 7 that clause; or 8 “(bb) $1,000 in liquidated
9 damages;

10 “(II) punitive damages, as the 11 court may allow; and 12 “(III) the costs of the action, to-13 gether with reasonable attorney’s fees, 14 as determined by the court.

15 “(d) REVIEW OF COMPLIANCE WITH STANDARDS
16 FOR SAFEGUARDING CUSTOMER INFORMATION.—

17 “(1) DEFINITION.—In this subsection, the term 18 ‘covered person’ has the meaning given the term in 19 section 1002 of the Consumer Financial Protection 20 Act of 2010 (12 U.S.C. 5481).

21 “(2) EXAMINATION.—The Bureau may examine 22 any consumer reporting agency that is a covered 23 person subject to supervision under section 1024 of 24 the Consumer Financial Protection Act of 2010 (12 25 U.S.C. 5514) for compliance by that agency with the

1 standards established by the Federal Trade Commis-
2 sion under section 501(b) of the Gramm-Leach-Bli-
3 ley Act (15 U.S.C. 6801(b)).

4 “(e) PROTECTION OF LEGAL RIGHTS OF CON-
5 SUMERS.—A consumer reporting agency may not take a 6 covered action—

7 “(1) as a condition of providing any service or 8 product to, or on behalf of, a consumer; and 9 “(2) that relates to the rights of a consumer 10 after a data breach at the consumer reporting agen-11 cy in which the sensitive personal information of the 12 consumer is lost, stolen, or accessed without author-13 ization.

14 “(f) ANNUAL STUDY AND REPORT.—

15 “(1) IN GENERAL.—Beginning in the first full 16 year after the date of enactment of this section, and 17 annually thereafter, the Bureau and the Federal 18 Trade Commission, in consultation with the Attor-19 ney General, shall conduct a study regarding the 20 costs to affected individuals from data breaches at 21 consumer reporting agencies, including—

22 “(A) the economic costs to those affected 23 individuals;

24 “(B) the effects on—

1 “(i) the ability of those affected individuals to obtain credit and housing; and

3 “(ii) the reputations of those affected individuals; and

5 “(C) the costs relating to the emotional and psychological stress of those affected individuals from having the sensitive personal information of those affected individuals lost, stolen, or accessed without authorization.

10 “(2) SUBMISSION TO CONGRESS.—Not later than 30 days after the date on which each study conducted under paragraph (1) is completed, the Bureau and the Federal Trade Commission shall submit to the appropriate committees of Congress a report that contains the results of the study.

16 “(3) CONTENTS.—Each study conducted under paragraph (1) and each report submitted under paragraph (2) shall contain a survey of affected individuals who were contacted for the purposes of conducting the study.

21 “(4) AUTHORITY.—In conducting any study under paragraph (1), the Bureau, the Federal Trade Commission, and the Attorney General may compel a consumer reporting agency to disclose nonproprietary information.

1 “(g) RULE OF CONSTRUCTION.—Nothing in this sec-2 tion may be construed as modifying, limiting, or super-3 seding any provision of State law if the protection that 4 the provision of State law provides to consumers is greater 5 than the protection provided to consumers under this sec-6 tion.”.

7 (b) TECHNICAL AND CONFORMING AMENDMENT.—
8 The table of contents for the Fair Credit Reporting Act
9 (15 U.S.C. 1681 et seq.) is amended by inserting after 10 the item relating to section 605B the following:

“605C. Data security at consumer reporting agencies.”.
